Flats idea suggested for £60m town plan

Alternative for Gateway scheme if no hotel is interested

By Loughlan Campbell

AN apartment block of 250 flats has been put forward by a councillor as a back-up plan if South Oxfordshire District Council fails to secure a hotel chain for its proposed £60 million Didcot Gateway development.

An eight-storey hotel formed part of the outline plan for the Station Road scheme approved by SODC's planning committee last month, along with 300 homes, a gym, a café, a restaurant and a pub.

The proposals have been in the pipeline for the last three years and, according to SODC and Didcot town councillor, Bill Service, a hotel chain has yet to be found for the development.

Previously, the size of the hotel has come under criticism from nearby residents and Cllr Service believes that its proposed height might have put off potential bidders.

He told the Guardian: "From what I understand, no hotels have declared an interest in bringing a hotel to that site.

"However, I think it was too ambitious to bring a hotel that size to that area as the thoughts from chains were that it was a bit out of keeping for the locality.

"I'd love for us to get a hotel on that site. It's an ideal location due to its proximity to the centre and with the Harwell and Culham Science Parks and Milton Park also close by, not to mention being straight across from the train station."

Cllr Service is proposing that should the council fail to bring in a hotel chain for the site, a 250-apartment block of less than eight storeys in height should be considered.

He added: "A hotel is, of course, my preferred option but if we cannot get one, then I will lobby hard to get an apartment block with at least 40 per cent of the housing to be affordable."

The Gateway plans include the demolition of The Prince of Wales pub, which has stood in Station Road since the 1840s, replacement buildings for both

£50m plan for the Charter is ditched

By Katriona Ormiston

A PLAN to redevelop Abingdon town centre costing £50 million has been scrapped after the company backing it asked to pull out of the deal.

A new library, health centre, multi-storey car park and supermarket were among the plans outlined to overhaul the Charter area. They were unveiled by Vale of White Horse District Council in 2011.

But Aberdeen Asset Management, which owns the leasehold, made a U-turn on the agreement after failing to secure a supermarket to anchor and part-fund the scheme.

Leader of Abingdon Town Council and district councilor Sandy Lovatt said: "They originally wanted to have what they call a magnet store, which would be a large superstore to bring people into the town, but the market for superstores has gone down.

"As you know a lot of the big stores are pulling in their horns, and that's what has really taken the meat out of their plans, so they can't get the funds."

A £4.5m facelift of most of Bury Street's shops was finished in 2012.

Vale spokesman Natalie Ellis said: "Because of the changing retail market for supermarkets, they've struggled to attract one to anchor a redevelopment. As a result, they have approached us to terminate the Charter redevelopment.

"It's not in Abingdon's interest to continue to pursue a supermarket development in the current market environment, so we are considering this request."

But she added that another deal made with the firm would be enforced – binding it to complete the revamp of the Bury Street shops even if the Charter development did not go ahead.

As part of that, Poundland will be moving into the old Co-op.

In a budget meeting last month, the Vale council put aside £950,000 to redevelop the Charter multi-storey car park within the next year.

Consultants have also been commissioned to come up with alternative options for the Charter and to explore if other companies would invest and perhaps take over the lease.

Cllr Lovatt added: "The plans would not be so much smaller scale, but different. Maybe it will be more of a social, cultural type thing going on, possibly with a cinema, possibly other units, that sort of thing – maybe a hotel even, to try and bring more people into the town centre."

Beatles' producer dies at home aged 90

THOUSANDS of people have paid tribute to The Beatles' music producer Sir George Martin, who has died aged 90.

He was dubbed the 'Fifth Beatle' after signing The Beatles in 1962, was their mentor and produced most of their records.

Sir George, who was also a composer, lived in the village of Coleshill, near Faringdon, for 40 years and died peacefully at home on Tuesday evening.

The Beatles' drummer Ringo Starr announced the news on Twitter yesterday, writing: "God bless George Martin peace and love to Judy and his family love Ringo and Barbara. George will be missed." Wantage MP Ed Vaizey paid tribute on Twitter: "Amazing man, made a huge contribution to music."

Sir George was born in Highbury, north London, in 1926 and was knighted in 1996.

Wanted appeal

CARTERTON: Police launched an appeal yesterday to find a Carterton man wanted on recall to prison.

Officers are searching for Daniel Edward Brassington, 37, and warned the public not to approach him but instead call 999. Brassington is wanted after breaching conditions of his licence.

He is white, about 5ft 6ins, large, and has links to Oxford, Banbury and Telford. Police also asked anyone who knows of his whereabouts to call 101.

Force to feature

OXON: A TV show called Behind Closed Doors about the work of Thames Valley Police's domestic abuse teams is being screened on Monday, March 14, on BBC1 at 9pm.

The filming starts from the moment a 999 call is made and follows three women who share their experiences of violence at home.

Murder arrest

BICESTER: A 43-year-old woman was arrested on suspicion of murder in connection with the death of 20-month-old Bicester toddler Sarah Dahane yesterday.

Sarah was found deceased in a property in Herald Way, Bicester, in May 2013.

The arrested woman was detained by the Uganda National Police in a joint operation with Thames Valley Police's major crime unit and is currently in custody.

Sarah's father, Nabil Dahane, re-appealed to the public last month, with the police offering a £10,000 reward for any information leading to an arrest.

Man jailed after beating girlfriend

Amjad Mohammed, of Nursery Close, Botley, viciously attacked his former partner on August 25 last year in their bedroom while she was 22 weeks' pregnant.

The 35-year-old was found guilty of one count of GBH with intent by a unanimous jury after a week-long trial on February 4.

Mohammed punched her in the head repeatedly before hitting her with a metal rod.

When she said she was in pain, he let her go to the bathroom, but she had no way of calling police and after 20 to 30 minutes returned to the bedroom where she was beaten with the rod again.

He then got a bread knife out of a box in the bedroom and cut both her hands.

Mohammed was arrested and charged the same day.

Tributes paid to Didcot dad killed in car crash

By Loughlan Campbell

TRIBUTES have flooded in for a Didcot father-of-three killed in a car crash in the town's Jubilee Way last Tuesday.

Chris Doman, 30, who had two young children, aged seven and 10, and also a baby due later this year, has been the recipient of an outpouring of messages from members of the Didcot community online.

Mr Doman was killed when his silver Rover was involved in a collision with a red Skoda driving in the opposite direction at the Hagbourne Road junction at about 2.10pm.

Speaking on Facebook, his partner Georgi Hare wrote: "He will be missed by his three children hugely. They will always be told I've lost my partner, my best friend and that will never go but he knows how much he was loved.

"Sleep right sweetheart, until we meet again, I love you xx."

A tribute from Mr Doman's sister Lainey Watts read: "Thank you to everyone that has been sending their regards for my brother Chris who we sadly lost yesterday, word cannot explain how and what we are going through right now.

"Another star has gained its angel wings. R.I.P little bro love you and miss you so much Chris xxx."

Police have appealed for witnesses to the accident. Mr Doman died at the scene where the Skoda's 44-year-old woman driver was also treated.

In other tributes to Mr Doman, Keiz Button wrote: "Chris was a top bloke always had a smile on his face. So many great memories. Still can't believe it! Thoughts to his family and Georgi!."

Bunches of flowers were also left at the scene with a note saying: "Chris. Taken too soon buddy. My thoughts now are with Georgi and the kids and your unborn son. Thanks for Everything. Rob."

Investigating officer Sergeant Ashley Hannibal said: "I would ask anyone who saw this collision on Jubilee Way, or who may have seen either of the two cars shortly before, to contact Thames Valley Police.

"There are allotments nearby and anyone who was working there may have seen something that could help with our investigations."

Anyone who witnessed the crash or has any information is asked to call police on 101.

An inquest into Mr Doman's death was opened and adjourned at Oxford Coroner's Court, in New Road, Oxford, yesterday.

The full inquest is due to be held at a later date.

Council remains in talks over pub site

the Soha Housing offices and Lydalls Nursery and a multi-storey car park next to Didcot Parkway station.

A hotel has also been suggested as part of the proposals, including 400 homes and a retail park, for the former Didcot 'A' Power Station site.

A luxury four-star hotel is also planned for Milton Park as well as another hotel to join Premier Inn at a proposed £11m business park at the Milton interchange services.

SODC leader John Cotton said: "The search for a new hotel is ticking along, but we are not in a position to announce anything soon. We still need to address certain elements of the scheme and are looking at the plans to see best how we proceed forward."

He said SODC was still in talks with Greene King over buying The Prince of Wales.

Didcot county councillor, Nick Hards, said: "It is going to be a struggle to attract a hotel to that site given all the other sites earmarked for hotels in and around the town.

"I've always thought SODC was being too greedy about that site and it still looks like a proposal that has not been fully thought through.

"The difficulty I have with this alternative is the car parking. It seems like we seem to have this hope that the issue will resolve itself but it won't and another 250 homes won't help."

Youngest mayor

DIDCOT: Steve Connel is set to be the youngest mayor in Didcot history after being elected mayor-designate at a full Didcot Town Council meeting on Monday.

The 34-year-old, chairman of the council's planning committee and a South Oxfordshire district councillor, was nominated by Cllr Bill Service and seconded by departing deputy mayor Tony Harbour.

Cllr Connel will take up office in May when mayor Cllr Des Healy's term finishes.

Power station owner reveals move to axe 2,400 workers

ENERGY firm Npower, operator of the gas-fired Didcot B Power Station, has announced 2,400 job cuts after posting a loss of more than £106 million for last year.

The utility, owned by German company RWE, said that a fifth of its workforce would go on Tuesday, two weeks after a fatal building collapse at its former coal-fired Didcot A Power Station site which it ran until March 2013.

Swindon-based Npower, one of the 'Big Six' energy firms, lost 351,000 customer accounts in 2015. It employs 11,500 people in the UK, with about 6,668 as full-time posts.

The company said the move would not affect any power station workers nationwide, with retail employees expected to lose their jobs.

A spokesperson for Npower said: "Npower takes its responsibilities to its employees seriously and will consult fully with affected employees and with unions over its proposals for the future of the business."

Before last month's tragedy, one of Didcot B's cooling towers caught fire in October 2014, leading to two of the 15 fan-assisted cooling towers being destroyed.

Response to abuse call leads to award

By Katriona Ormiston

WHEN a frightened girl built up the courage to ring 999 to tell someone for the first time she was being sexually abused, she found sympathetic support on the other end of the line.

Taking her call and supporting her through the conversation was Abingdon-based call handler Ann Marie Young - and it was her competence dealing with the youngster that kick-started a police investigation which led to the male perpetrator being jailed for 16 years.

• Ann Marie Young being presented with the commendation by Chief Constable Francis Habgood

She said: "I remember answering the call and I could barely hear her at first. As I began to understand what she was telling me, I immediately knew it was genuine. This wasn't a child messing about or trying to get attention.

"What she was telling me was so descriptive it had to be true. Listening to this young girl telling me the horrific things that had been happening to her was heartbreaking, as a mother of two children myself - and my youngest daughter was just 12 months old at the time. Listening to her gentle voice asking for my help, really hit home."

Ms Young was presented with a certificate by Chief Constable Francis Habgood during a ceremony. She had been a TVP call handler for six years when she took the call in 2012.

Ms Young added: "The most difficult conversation was the one I had to have next with the child's mother who was unaware of what had been happening to her daughter.

"That is a conversation that no mother would want to have and was extremely hard."

During the later court trial of the offender, the 999 call was played to the jury, leaving one of them in tears. The judge in the case also praised the way Ms Young had handled the most difficult of calls.

Ms Young said: "I've been a call handler for TVP for more than ten years but that is one call that I will never forget.

"I feel really honoured to receive this commendation and knowing that I helped to make a difference to that young girl's life is why I am proud to do my job.

"In comparison to what that brave young girl had to go through, my job was easy."

Superintendent Gill Wootton, TVP's head of control room and enquiries, said: "The role of a call handler is very diverse, however the reward you feel from helping a member of the public is beyond satisfying.

"You could be presented with a call like Ann-Marie's and the next could be a member of the public reporting lost property."

Leader's pledge

OXON: The new leader of Oxfordshire's business promotion group started his job on Tuesday pledging to further the county's economic growth.

Jeremy Long has become chairman of Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership (OxLEP). He is the CEO for Europe at the MTR Corporation, based in Hong Kong – a railway and property company.

He succeeds interim chairman, Ian Wenman, who took over from Adrian Shooter after he stepped down in October 2014 following the completion of his five-year term.

Child abuse rises

OXON: The number of child sex offences reported rose by 366 in the last year across Thames Valley, new figures revealed yesterday.

The statistics show 1,815 child sex offences were reported in 2014 to 2015, compared to 1,449 the previous year.

The numbers were obtained by children's charity the NSPCC through a Freedom of Information request to police.

They show 1,503 were female victims compared to 304 male ones, and 393 were aged 10 or under – 105 of which were too young to go to school.

Study highlights the police's use of force

By Katriona Ormiston

OXFORDSHIRE'S police force used physical strength more than 1,000 times in five years, an Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) report revealed on Tuesday.

Thames Valley Police (TVP) was in the top five of 44 police services for the number of use-of-force incidents across England and Wales, with 1,371 recorded from 2009 to 2014.

Force includes physically restraining someone, using batons or sprays, tasers and guns.

The report also named TVP as among five forces for which use of force was higher than the average figure for forces across England and Wales which stood at 20 per cent. The TVP figure was 31 per cent.

In a three-month period, 29 Thames Valley Police complaints, deaths or injuries were submitted as referrals to the IPCC - from April 1 to June 30, 2014. Of these, nine were use of force incidents.

The IPCC warned a better system was needed to record and expose incidents when police force was used.

It also concluded people believed officers used force more readily than a decade ago.

TVP's deputy Chief Constable, John Campbell, welcomed the report and said: "Our officers undergo regular and rigorous training and assessment in the legal and practical aspects of using force and we incorporate into our training any lessons learnt from case studies."

He also said that where force was used officers had to make a record of it, and if someone was injured the force referred itself to the IPCC.

The report made 20 recommendations including the need to consistently record and publish data for public scrutiny.

TVP's 1,371 incidents of force recorded came fifth out of the 44 England and Wales police forces.

The Metropolitan Police Service had 6,497, Greater Manchester Police had 2,388, Merseyside Police had 1,672, and West Yorkshire Police had 1,438.

The City of London Police had the lowest at 83.

Building to finish £70m plan

Called Franklins House, the five-storey building in Pioneer Square will be home to new offices for Cherwell District Council and Brethertons Solicitors, as well as housing the town's new library, a Travelodge hotel, shops and restaurants. No details have been released of any shops or restaurants moving in.

Franklins House marks the final piece of a £70 million town-centre regeneration project, which also included a cinema, a Sainsbury's supermarket and shops and restaurants.

• Staff gear up to move into Franklins House which is weeks away from completion.

Cllr Norman Bolster, Cherwell's lead member for estates and economy, said: "At Franklins House, the walls are up, the roof is on and the fixtures are going in so we're on course for our spring opening.

"Our purpose-built offices will provide improved facilities for customers, while the building itself will become a focal point for businesses, customers and visitors."

The district council's office in Market Square will close on March 24 and temporarily operate from Bicester Town Council's offices at The Garth from March 29 – April 1. Its new office opens on April 4.

Steve Neasham, partner at Brethertons, said: "Our move to Franklins House is the next exciting stage in the development of our services in the Bicester area."

Cloudy2Clear Announce Which? Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Oxfordshire area from their local depots and manager James Miller agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Eco homes' first residents expected in springtime

By Jayne Smith

THE first residents of Bicester's 6,000-home eco settlement are set to move in this spring.

A report for Cherwell district councillors said the first 97 homes on the development, off Banbury Road, were almost complete.

Construction started in May 2014 and developer A2Dominion has said all the homes have been sold.

The report said: "Feedback has indicated that sales are above industry averages and are going well."

It came as plans to open a primary school at the site have been delayed by a year.

The White Horse Federation will operate the school and has appointed a headteacher, the report said.

But it said: "The school was originally being targeted for opening in 2016 but there has been insufficient pupils for this year and therefore OCC and the Department of Education have agreed that the school should open in September 2017."

Building work on a second tranche of homes is set to start later this year – developer A2Dominion was given planning permission to build 393 homes at the 'exemplar' site – it is hoped they will be complete by the end of 2016. Plans for a local centre including an eco pub, shops and a community hall, as well as an eco business centre have been approved and building work must be under way by the time the first 250 homes are finished.

Meanwhile, Cherwell council has teamed up with a string of organisations including the University of Oxford, Forest Research and Bioregional to find better ways to plan green infrastructure in Bicester such as parks and wildlife habitats.

Cllr Barry Wood, Cherwell's leader, said: "We recognise the importance of green space in creating high quality neighbourhoods and therefore are really pleased to be part of this project which will help ensure that high quality green infrastructure is provided within the town and that networks of green infrastructure are maintained and expanded as the town grows."

• Last week, the Government announced two estates in Oxfordshire, Barton Park, in Oxford, and the Bicester eco town, would have fast food-free zones near schools, virtual GP visits and dementia-friendly streets.

• The first 97 homes at Bicester's eco settlement are almost complete with residents due to move in this spring

Sporting stars honoured

CHIPPING Norton has been celebrating its "proud sporting champions" at the seventh annual awards ceremony.

Dozens of people filled the town hall to watch 10 people receive accolades for their sporting achievements.

Chippy News sports editor and former mayor Graham Beacham, who came up with the idea for the awards, said: "We are very proud of our sporting champions."

Among those celebrating were sisters Leah and Emily Notman, both showjumpers, who picked up under-11 and 11 to 17 Sportsperson of the Year respectively.

Other winners were skater hockey coach Steve Hickman, who won a gold in the Olympic Legacy Awards to reward coaching.

Chipping Norton School's PE department won silver in the category while bronze went to cricket coach Sam Townsend.

The Club Award went to Four Shires Swimming Club, the Over-18 Team Award was won by Chipping Norton & District Cricket Club and Chipping Norton School's Under-14 Boys Rugby scooped the under 18 Team Award.

The Over-18 Sportsperson of the Year went to Alfie Rowett for athletics, while Devon Shadbolt was joint 11-17 Sportsperson of the Year for skater hockey.

Opinions sought

BICESTER: People are being asked their view over how Bicester should be shaped as a garden town.

Over three days, from Thursday, March 10, to Saturday, March 12, residents and traders will be asked what they would like to see in the town.

Sessions take place in the former Cargo unit next to WH Smith, in Crown Walk, or call Cherwell District Council on 01295 227001

Desk to close

THAME: The town's police desk is set to close next month, leaving residents to use the Aylesbury station or call the non-emergency police number 101.

Inspector Mark Harling, of Thames Valley Police, told town councillors the desk in North Street would close from April 1 following a review showing the small number of people using it did not justify keeping it open.

Deadline looms

SOUTH OXON: Community groups and parish councils in South Oxfordshire are being reminded to get their applications in for council funding.

Applications close on Friday, April 1, 2016.

Debut comic event proves a big draw

By Katriona Ormiston

STORMTROOPERS, hobbits, and Jedi knights came to life as superheroes at Oxford's first comic con last weekend.

About 2,000 comic book fans flocked to Oxcon 2016 at Oxford University's Examination School in High Street on Saturday and Sunday.

Oxford resident Chris Stonehouse said: "It was fun, people obviously had a whale of a time.

"There were so many people in costumes and they were so great. There were lots of wonderful artists and things to buy, and some cool talks and panel discussions too. And it was in such beautiful building.

"And, wow, Japanese anime is obviously really popular with teens.

"There was definitely enough stuff from the more literary, arty side to interest me too."

Among the heroes, villains, rescuers and protectors were rebel fighter pilots, The Joker, Catwoman and Princess Leia.

The fans were treated to a programme of talks, discussions, workshops, tours and various stalls with about 70 exhibitors running from 10am until 6pm each day.

Among the guests were Darth Vader, C3PO and stormtrooper sculptor and artist Brian Muir, Harry Potter death eater actor Jon Campling, Spider-Man and Transformers illustrator and storyboard artist Andrew Wildman and Bond girl and Warrior Woman actor Virginia Hey.

Firefighters tackle blazes believed to have been set by arsonists

ARSON is suspected to be the cause of two fires in Oxford overnight on Saturday.

A derelict former residential care home in Banbury Road went up in flames at 23.32pm, before the Regina Hair Salon was set alight in Cowley Road at 2.04am the following day.

Out of the 46 firefighters attending the Banbury Road blaze, 26 of them entered the building to check for any trapped people.

Six fire engines, an incident command unit from Woodstock and an incident support unit from Eynsham attended.

Three fire engines attended the salon blaze after a doorman at a club raised the alarm after smelling smoke.

Charlotte Redman, Thames Valley Police spokesperson, confirmed an inquiry had been launched with Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service.

She said: "We are investigating the cause of the fires and we suspect that the cause of both fires is arson."

• Flowers left by the devastation

• Emergency workers return from assessing the site

By Loughlan Campbell

THE families of the missing three men trapped in a 30ft rubble pile at Didcot 'A' Power Station have not given up hope that their loved ones will be found.

More than 7,000 people have signed a petition calling for emergency services to find them following the collapse of part of the boiler room two weeks ago.

The petition was set up on Friday after the emergency services confirmed on Thursday that the search for the missing trio could take 'several months'.

Police named Ken Cresswell, 57, and John Shaw, 61, both of Rotherham, on Monday as two of the missing three, with the family of Christopher Huxtable, 34, of Swansea, confirming him as the third.

A press briefing on Thursday outside the station's boiler room, revealed that none of the wreckage had yet been moved.

Mick Collings, 53, of North Yorkshire, was killed in the collapse, which trapped the trio and injured a further five. The petition, which has attracted 7,265 signatures, was set up by Jade Ali, 28, Mr Huxtable's partner.

Ms Ali said in the petition: "As most people are aware what has happened with our loved ones please everyone please take just one minute of your time to sign this to please get the three men out of all that rubble.

"We need them home. Minutes are turning in to hours, and days are turning in to weeks. Get these three hard-working men out and back home."

Scott Chilton, Assistant Chief Constable of Thames Valley Police, said on Thursday: "It will take many months before we get access to the trapped persons.

"I would like to reiterate my thoughts from all the agencies involved in the operation for the families. This is an incredibly difficult time for them and it will take some time for them to receive closure on this."

The fire service has aired fears that the remainder of the 10-storey, 300m-long building could also collapse, having previously said the missing three were 'unlikely' to be found alive.

When asked if any rubble had been moved, ACC Chilton said the services were 'continuously reviewing' it and could have a clearer picture of how to start to do so by the end of this week after seeking specialist advice.

Peter Baker, chief inspector of construction at the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), said: "We need to look and understand what happened here and given the sheer scale and complexity that it involves, this may take some time. Everyone is working very hard to identify the causes as quickly as possible and to see what lessons can be learnt so we can avoid a tragedy like this in the future."

Demolition company Coleman & Company was more than halfway through a three-year project to demolish the coal-fired plant which shut in March 2013.

Residents back town blueprint

By Jayne Smith

CHIPPING Norton residents have voted overwhelmingly in favour of adopting a proposed town neighbourhood plan.

The decision comes after a referendum on the plan, which will guide future development in the town until 2031, was held on March 3.

Results showed a 20.89 per cent turnout, with 901 votes backing the neighbourhood plan and 80 people opposing it.

People were asked: "Do you want West Oxfordshire District Council to use the neighbourhood plan for Chipping Norton to help it decide planning applications in the neighbourhood area?"

Because more than 50 per cent of votes supported the neighbourhood plan, it will be formally adopted by the district council.

Chipping Norton mayor Mike Tysoe said: "For those of us who had anything to with the neighbourhood plan, we are very pleased it has gone through with such a big majority.

"I'm a little disappointed with the turn-out, but overall it was a very good day."

Cllr Warwick Robinson, cabinet member for planning at the district council, said: "The Chipping Norton Neighbourhood Plan is the first in West Oxfordshire to reach a referendum and the town council should be congratulated for reaching this stage, having undertaken a considerable amount of work and public consultation over the last couple of years.

"Following the positive vote, this plan will now be formally adopted by the district council, who are the local planning authority, and will be made part of the statutory development plan for the district.

"This Neighbourhood Plan will be taken in to account as a 'material consideration' in planning decisions for Chipping Norton."

A neighbourhood plan helps guide future development and can set out where housing or employment could be developed, the types of development and what infrastructure, such as open spaces and paths, was welcome.

The town council had been working on its neighbourhood plan for four years.

Work was led by a steering group of nine, including residents and town councillors.

It hosted a series of consultation events including a workshop, questionnaires, open days, public meetings and town-wide mail drops.

He also thrashed former mayor and contest founder Cllr Peter Lambert. Mayor, Cllr Nichola Dixon, also took part.

She said: "Having gone into the competition having never played snooker before, I am now a huge fan. The whole competition was so much fun and there is some real talent amongst Thame's snooker players."

The two-day contest was held at Thame Snooker Club and raised £140 for the mayor's charities.

Van tools stolen

The theft from the unlocked vehicle happened in Barry Avenue between noon and 12.15pm on Wednesday, March 2.

Anyone with information should call Bicester neighbourhood police team via 101 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

People are advised by police to always lock their vehicles and remove any valuables.

Driver, 19, remanded in custody after young girl hurt in hit-and-run crash

A TEENAGE driver faces a string of charges after a hit-and-run crash which saw a four-year-old girl thrown across the bonnet of a car and on to the road in Oxford.

Zaheeb Bokhara, 19, of Howard Street, Oxford, was arrested by police on Friday and charged the following day.

Officers made an appeal for witnesses after the incident in Rose Hill on Monday, February 22.

A car collided with the girl and sped away in Mortimer Road near to the junction with Nowell Road at about 4.15pm.

Bokhara faces one count of driving a car that failed to stop after a crash, one of failing to report the collision, one of using a car without third-party insurance, one of perverting the cause of justice, and four counts of driving a car not in accordance with a licence.

He appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Saturday and was remanded in custody to appear before the same court on Friday, April 1.

Mother of dead baby is urged to come forward

By Katriona Ormiston

THE mother of a baby girl found dead on a Marston footpath is believed to have been aged between 14 and 21, police have confirmed.

The baby weighed about 8lbs and was born at full term, officers revealed at a media briefing at Thames Valley Police's headquarters in Kidlington on Friday.

They also said there were no signs of the newborn having been injured before she died.

The head of midwifery at Oxford University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, Jane Hervé, attended the briefing to appeal to the mum.

She said: "I understand that you have probably given birth to your baby alone as you may have been very frightened about what may happen to you.

"I appreciate this situation is very difficult for you but I would like you to know we have lots of midwives and doctors in the hospital who really want to help and support you during this very difficult time."

The baby was found by a member of the public on a path off Edgeway Road last Monday, February 29. A medical examination was carried out last Thursday and police said they believed the newborn had been left on the path between one and three days before she was found.

Officers have been speaking to colleges, schools and charities in an effort to trace the mother.

Ms Hervé added: "Please be reassured that they will not judge you but will care for your physical and emotional needs in the way you need right now.

"I want you to contact us so we can check you over as it is likely you will need some medical and emotional support.

"Please do not leave it too long as I do not want you to get sick. I must stress that it is so important that you are seen."

The baby's mother is being urged to contact a midwife by calling 01865 740429. Or to speak to a specialist officer, she can text or call 07470 911038.

Anyone else with any information is asked to call police on 101.

Plea delayed in murder case

THE man accused of stabbing a 61-year-old Oxford father to death in Abingdon's Poundland store did not enter a plea in court last week after his hearing was postponed.

Trevor Joyce, 36, appeared at Oxford Crown Court via a video link from HMP Woodhill near Milton Keynes last Thursday, March 3. He was due to enter a plea but the hearing was rescheduled to a later date because psychiatric reports were not ready.

• Oxford Crown Court

He spoke only to confirm his name, wearing a grey sweatshirt and black and white necklace.

A new date of Monday, May 2, was set for a plea and case management hearing.

A date for a trial to start had previously been set as Monday, June 6, and this has not changed.

Witnesses recalled how an attacker grabbed knives from the shop shelf before stabbing Mr Skrebowski and running out of the store along Bury Street before he was tackled by police in High Street.

An inquest opening into the death heard Mr Skrebowski was stabbed in the back.

£4m boost to help regenerate estate

By Loughlan Campbell

COUNCILLORS have welcomed a £3.9 million investment in Barton to help transform homes and facilities on the estate.

Oxford City Council announced on Thursday that it is set to invest the multi-million sum into the community of about 4,000 residents, just a day after councillors approved the first 237 homes to be built at the new Barton Park estate.

The work includes improvements to all the blocks of flats on the estate, 'Welcome to Barton' street signs and an extension of the health centre in the neighbourhood centre and the transformation of Underhill Circus.

The council has been working with Barton Community Association to bring forward the regeneration programme, with Barton residents to be consulted on the works which begin over the next few weeks.

"Despite the Government's massive cuts to local council funding, we remain determined that the new Barton development must benefit the existing estate.

"These projects, which have been discussed locally, will help improve the quality of life in Barton for all residents."

Fellow Barton councillor Van Coulter also welcomed the funding, stating: "The £3.9m will help attract further funding towards reinvigorating the Barton neighbourhood."

The works will also include installing screened bin storage areas and transforming the entrance foyer at the neighbourhood centre in Underhill Circus.

Barton estate, which was completed in 1946, is expected to house a total of 7,000 residents when the 885-home Barton Park is completed in 2025.

The £53m, three-phase development, which includes a 315-space primary school and community hub, is due to begin with the digging of the foundations in June.

The new estate will see 40 per cent of the properties as affordable housing and housebuilders Hill is looking to provide the homes for the first residents to move into by next summer.

Andy Hill, Hill's chief executive, said: "This is great news for Oxford. A lack of new homes is putting pressure on local families, and so investing in developments like Barton Park is vital if the city is to continue to grow and prosper."

The new estate was also named as one of the NHS's new 'healthy towns' last week, with the developers working as part of a pilot programme with the health service to provide dementia-friendly streets and fast food-free zones as part of the development.

Man grabbed 12-year-old girl's wrist in bid to abduct her in town

A 12-YEAR-OLD girl was the subject of an abduction attempt by a man who followed her on Thursday in Abingdon.

She was walking on the path between The Motte and Box hill Walk by Boxhill Park at 8.15am when the man grabbed her wrist and pulled her before she kicked out and managed to escape in the direction of the park where she raised the alarm with a friend.

The offender is described as being white with a tan, aged in his 30s, about 6ft tall and of large build. He was wearing a grey top and black jeans.

Investigating officer Detective Inspector Mike Roddy, of Force CID in Abingdon, said on Thursday: "Fortunately the victim was not injured and she managed to get away.

"It is vital that we locate the man involved in order to establish exactly what happened.

"There are community reassurance patrols in the area today and I would urge anyone with any concerns or information to speak to them."

He added: "If you have any information about this incident or saw the man involved, please contact police via the 101 number."

Pictures released in bid to identify football hooligans

By Loughlan Campbell

POLICE have released pictures of more than 10 football fans following incidents of disorder at Oxford United matches earlier this year.

Officers believe the men in the 16 images might be able to help their inquiries into altercations that led to eight arrests at United's Johnstone's Paint Trophy home clash with Millwall on February 2 at the Kassam Stadium.

One of the images also relates to disorder that took place when Oxford beat Portsmouth at Fratton Park on January 23.

Thames Valley Police believes the men in the images could have 'vital information' about the incidents of disorder.

Sergeant James Blackmore, who is leading the post-match investigation entitled Operation Brazil, said: "We believe the men in these photos may have vital information about incidents of disorders during Oxford's home match against Millwall and the away match against Portsmouth.

"If you are pictured in these images or know who the men are, please contact police immediately."

The incidents led to a horse from the force's mounted section called Odin receiving a cut to his leg from a bottle, while another horse was also hit on the head by a bottle.

Supt Christian Bunt, Local Policing Area (LPA) Commander for Oxford, said: "We have a small minority of people who call themselves Oxford United fans who think it's acceptable to cause disorder at football matches.

"We will not tolerate this type of behaviour. We will proactively arrest and deal robustly with anyone causing disorder at Oxford United matches home or away. Oxford United is a family club and there is no place for these so-called supporters to ruin it for everyone else.

He added that police have arrested 15 men in connection with disorder since the Wycombe game in December.

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

New Horizons in Hearing

The new hearing aid from Widex pushes the barriers of performance. WIDEX UNIQUE takes digital processing to a new level to capture more sound than any other hearing aid on the market and is now available at Keith Donaghy Hearingcare.

Supreme sound quality in any environment.

Hearing soft sounds is particularly important for users but even more important is determining which are useful and which are not. UNIQUE is the only hearing aid that ensures important soft sounds are maintained and unwanted soft sounds are removed.

The powerful soft level noise reduction system reduces the soft sounds users do not want to hear while retaining the audibility of soft speech. And it determines the difference between speech and noise (particularly background noise) without any compromise in speech intelligibility or comfort.

The best wind noise reduction in the industry.

For users to truly enjoy being outdoors, it is essential that they can hear clearly no matter the conditions. The wind noise attenuation system in UNIQUE provides users with documented improvement in hearing speech and environmental sounds in the presence of wind noise.

Full connectivity

All unique hearing aids are compatible with the DEX range of communication accessories that provide full connectivity to mobile phones, remote controls, TVs and more.

NEW HORIZONS IN HEARING

Keith Donaghy warns prospective customers to be careful about misleading and inaccurate special offers and to consider that "you get what you pay for". He said that Keith Donaghy Hearing care is an independent company and can offer completely impartial advice and an aftercare service that is vital to make sure things run smoothly for the future of the client and their hearing aid system.

Girl band 'amazed' at joining Jason on tour

THE last nine months have been a whirlwind for Mon Amie.

By James Richings

The four-piece girl band has gone from auditioning for the X Factor TV talent show last year to supporting musician and actor Jason Donovan on his UK tour, bringing them to Oxford's New Theatre on Sunday, March 13.

Honey Fine, Abi Dhese-Biggs, Izzy Lock and Monifa James might have missed out on reaching the final 13 on X Factor, but they are still where they wanted to be - on stage performing to thousands.

"We are going to keep going and keep doing what we do best and love the most. We will continue to work hard as we know success doesn't come easy." Izzy told the Guardian. "Coca Cola only sold 25 bottles in the first year and look where they are now!"

She added: "It is really great and amazing to be working with someone who is such a legend within the music industry. We would love to be so successful as him one day."

The four friends were all studying performing arts at college before they took the plunge to audition for the X Factor show.

"An amazing opportunity came up for us through our management a week after we were formed and we thought why not go for the audition?" Honey said.

They made it to the 'six chair challenge' stage of the competition, two rounds before the live shows begin.

Their tour with Jason Donovan started on February 17 and rolls into Oxford next week.

Abi said: "We each have our own individual style and we will be performing an original track live for the first time on tour."

Tickets cost from £32.40 to £37.40 and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Headliners announced

• UK Foo Fighters in action

THE Beacon Festival in Watlington has announced its headliners.

The two-day showing at Watlington Hill Farm will see tribute band Not The Rolling Stones perform on Friday, June 17, and the UK Foo Fighters take to the stage on Saturday, June 18. Bands including Lowly Hounds, Dubvocaliza and Dubwiser will also be playing.

"We try and bring the atmosphere and eclectic mix of music and activities of Glastonbury to Watlington - on a much smaller scale, of course," music co-ordinator Michele Pethers told the Guardian.

The family-friendly festival includes workshops, a literary and comedy area, and a kids' zone.

A full line-up is to be announced.

Rock group's gig

LIVE MUSIC: Alternative rock group Wolf Alice will be at the O2 Academy in Oxford on Sunday, March 13.

The group, nominated for 'British Breakthrough Act' at this year's BRIT Awards, will perform tracks off their debut album, 'My Love is Cool'.

The Coral makes a comeback

By James Richings

Hits such as 'Pass it On', 'In the Morning' and 'Don't Think You're the First' have all had their fair share of air play.

But fans can hear the tracks for real when the band arrive at the O2 Academy in Oxford on Tuesday, March 15.

And hot on the heels of their live Cowley Road show will come The Coral's latest album, which is due to be released this month.

It will be the group's eighth studio album and their first since 2010.

"The new songs are heavier and sound great live, but we play lots of our singles and the back catalogue so it's a good mix," keyboard player Nick Power told the Guardian.

"And Oxford is always a good gig.

"I think we were there in around 2004 and 2007 and we have good crowds in Oxford."

Formed in 1996, the Merseyside group has seen all its albums bar one peak in the top 20 of the UK album charts.

Strong record sales across Europe made the group a popular force in the early to mid 2000s, but it wasn't until their second album 'Magic and Medicine' that the group become a household name.

The 2003 album made it to the number one spot of the UK charts, and it also made the charts in nine countries and reached a gold certification, marking more than 500,000 sales.

The album was the first of two gold certifications the band achieved. And they also passed the 1,000,000 platinum certification mark for their self-titled debut album.

"Distance Inbetween (their new album) is one of my favourites that we have released - I feel it is the best thing we have ever written," Nick said.

"If you get a good response from the crowd, then you generally feed off that and play better." He added: "If you want to make it in music, you have got to work hard, be obsessive and don't follow trends."

Recorded at Liverpool's Parr Street Studio with co-producer Richard Turvey, Distance Inbetween was completed live and mostly in one take.

Tickets for the gig cost £17.50 and doors open at 7pm.

Review: Quod restaurant and bar

ONE question I very much regret not asking owner Jeremy Mogford as he sat across the table is; what's in the name, Quod?

On first hearing it I assumed it was a reference to the quads of Oxford University's colleges, just a stone's throw away from the High Street eatery. But on seeing the spelling it appears to have more in common with the slang term for jail.

I guess I was too busy enjoying goats cheese croutons with roasted beetroot and hazelnuts to remember to ask.

"Quod has always been 'all things to all people', attracting the widest range of customers, great for a quick bite, an after-work cocktail, a long lunch on the terrace or perfect for a special occasion," says Jeremy.

"I feel that it's been absolutely imperative to retain everything we love about Quod, yet taking this opportunity to make it even better."

The occasion was Quod's reopening after a six week long refurbishment.

I have to say I'm actually quite glad

By Katriona Ormiston

that the 200-cover restaurant area itself hasn't changed much at all, and the quirky art pieces with a hint of avant-garde have hung on to their spots on the wall.

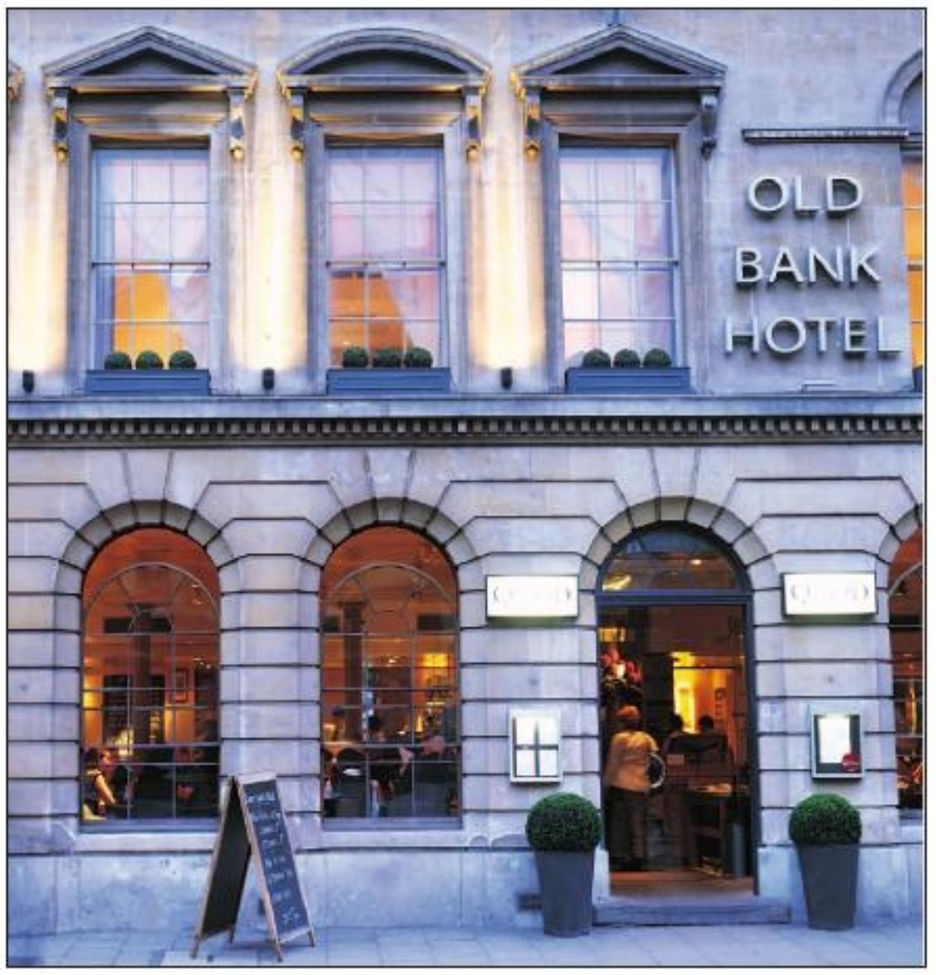
But what was stylish before is now edging more towards opulent with a new curved central white onyx bar with goatskin topped bar stools. The bronze banker's lamps are also a nice touch to nod back to the building's history as a former bank.

But one of the biggest projects as part of the renovation works must have been replacing the kitchen after Quod's 18 years.

And what came out of it was good. With the new kitchen came a new à la carte menu.

The main course of my choosing was salmon fishcakes and spinach with lemon butter sauce.

I'm always sailing a bit close to the wind when I order fishcakes somewhere that I haven't before.



They're a favourite, but I'm also fussy. I'm pleased to report they were lovely, and not too starchy - a fishcake sin. Although a little more lemon butter would not have gone amiss.

My fair share of a bottle of Petit Chablis 2014 was a delicious treat.

And I would highly recommend two scoops of ice cream to round it all off, if any of the other desserts can't tempt you - alongside a Nightcap cocktail of Martell VS, Kahlua, espresso shot, and salted caramel.

Where the name Quod came from I still don't know, but I'm sure there will be a next time.

ADVERTORIAL

No Expense Spared!

The Packhorse goes all out on a brand new refurbishment & menu

The Packhorse has always been a focal point for the village of Milton Hill, conveniently situated between Newbury & Oxford and has for many years been known for its fine fare & hospitality. Being regular customers of The Packhorse over the years; we were extremely intrigued to find out what had changed both décor & culinary-wise. I think only one word would suffice here; WOW! The interior is absolutely stunning to say the least and from the minute you walk through the door you feel an air of both classy restaurant and village pub, all rolled into one.

The service we experienced was exemplary from all staff throughout the entire evening and the wealth of knowledge they had regarding both the food & drink was outstanding. We felt that nothing was too much to ask for and the food was truly next level…..

Whilst choosing what to eat and drink we were presented with a delicious "mouth amuser" plate full of different breads, olives and dips and we knew straight away that we were in for a treat. As a starter we had a sumptuous bowl full of succulent seared black pearl scallops in the most amazing, creamy sauce and the toasted bread that accompanied was a great way to help soak up the sauce. For a main course we had pan roasted barbary duck breast which was so juicy and perfectly cooked it almost melted in your mouth! It came with dauphinoise potatoes, slow cooked red cabbage & apple and a red wine jus with crispy pancetta. For dessert we had sunken chocolate cake with Bailey's cream and chocolate fudge sauce and it was pure heaven in a bowl! The wine we chose from the extensive wine list was The Old Press; a South Eastern Australian Shiraz and it complimented the entire meal perfectly.

All in all we had an absolutely brilliant evening and we'll definitely be back. The food, drink, staff and aesthetics were first class and we honestly can't find a bad word to say about the whole experience.

MLC Pubs will be opening another pub at Easter in Boars Hill so they're currently looking for good quality staff. If you're interested in finding out more, please email nathan@mlcpubs.com

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Oscar Wilde's comic masterpiece is brought to the stage with an anarchic twist. It's energetic and full of all the usual coruscating Wildean wit, as well as a few surprises including singing butlers, travel by means of musical montage and a post-interval Hollywood style recap. The Pantaloons are a young, vibrant theatre company whose style draws from a wide variety of popular theatre. In their theatre, the audience's imagination is just as important as the company's, and this show allows ours to run wild(e)! What's to like Classic comedy of manners with razor-sharp dialogue.

THE JAMES HUNTER SIX

James Hunter is back with his latest album, Hold On! Hunter has been on the scene for enough years to acquire plenty of feathers in his cap: Billboard charts, Grammy nominations, and Van Morrison collaborations.
On top of all this, he has earned an international reputation as a rhythm and blues troubadour for his command of the microphone, both on stage and in studio. This album, however, is something far deeper than just another notch in his belt. It is truly an artist's vision come to fruition.

Citroën C4 Picasso 130 S&S 6-speed manual

By Anthony Yates

I will start by saying that space is king, and the Picasso really should be the one to beat when it comes to comfort and space.

The C4 Picasso range comes with an array of petrol and diesel engines but the one in my test car was the peachy three-cylinder, 1,199 cc turbo-charged unit. Max power for this unit is130hp @ 5,500rpm and 230Nm (170lbft) of torque.

Fuel consumption is also good, with a combined figure of 56.5mpg. This is the model from the range I would choose because it's free revving and very willing.

The Picasso's ride is better than most and it handles with a good sense of control.

I have said many times that some MPVs are top heavy and slow, but the Picasso feels nimble. I used to own a Vauxhall Zafira and the road noise on that was terrible, but the Picasso is very quiet and you will not need the radio at maximum volume to drown out the road noise.

Citroën has been making big changes on quality and this shows in the interior design. Some of the layout is not great and I don't like how some of the controls feel, being a bit of a stretch to reach, but all in all it is a practical and thoughtfully designed family car.

Standard equipment is good and many of the range will have a 7in touch screen interface, USB Bluetooth with media streaming, air conditioning, auto activation of lights and wipers and a DAB radio and six speakers. Space in the rear is good and the boot is huge with 537 litres (seats up) and 1,851 litres (seats lowered).

On the safety front, the Picasso has ABS with EBD and EBA, ESC with traction control, a hill start sssist function, auto activation of hazard warning lights and driver and front passenger airbags.

To sum up, the Picasso is a great family car that looks good, but drives even better.

Bubb's off as Blues lose to Stones

By Loughlan Campbell

A LATE red card for striker Bradley Bubb compounded another miserable night for Oxford City on Tuesday when a 3-2 defeat to Maidstone United extended the Blues' winless run to nine games.

Bubb had grabbed the opener for City at Marsh Lane on the half-hour mark before Oxford's defence fell apart, allowing Maidstone to storm into a lead with strikes by Callum Davies and Alex Flisher and an own goal by City's goalkeeper Laurie Walker.

City had time to make the score more respectable late on with substitute Kaylem Patterson grabbing his first goal for the club.

However, the defeat left City lying ninth in the Conference South.

Flisher tested City keeper Walker in the opening stages with two strong efforts before Dumebi Dumaka fired over from the edge of the box. The Stones should have grabbed the opener when a corner from Vas Karagiannis was headed inches over the bar by Joe Healy.

Oxford then took the lead in some style as Kynan Isaac delivered a low cross in from the left and Bubb barrelled the ball into the net for his 15th league goal of the season.

But the sides headed into the break level after Flisher launched a throw across Oxford's box for Davies to head a clean effort into the net.

Into the second half, Oxford had a dangerous chance cleared off the line when Bubb's inswinging cross was swept away by Callum Driver.

Maidstone then went in front on 63 minutes when a Karagiannis' corner was knocked out for Healy to float an effort back into the box only for Walker to punch the ball into his own net.

It was then three for United when good link-up play between Flisher and Karagiannis led to the former heading home the latter's cross in a swift counter-attack with 67 minutes played.

Patterson snatched Oxford's second in added time before Bubb departed early after picking up two quick yellow cards for minor incidents.

Oxford RL feel the Thunder

OXFORD RL kicked off their 2016 league season with a 30-22 defeat at Iffley Road to Newcastle Thunder on Sunday.

The Blues started strongly and Josh Nathaniel bagged Oxford's first try of the season, crossing over in the 5th minute before Nathan Kitson kicked wide.

Two successive penalties spurred Newcastle up the pitch and in the 12th minute Sam Luckley crossed for the Thunder for a converted try.

A follow-up try from Craig Cook was then successfully converted by Ben Hardcastle to extend the visitors' lead.

However, the Blues roared back and a break from Kieran Gill allowed him to slip in Aaron Dobek for another Oxford try and Kitson added the extras.

Gill then showed strong pace to pick up the ball inside his own 20 before running the length of the pitch to touch down early in the second half. Dan Parker then crossed for Newcastle with a converted try in the 60th minute before Lee Paterson pushed through another try for the visitors.

The North-East side then consolidated the win after Vincent Rennie smashed his way through the Oxford defence for another converted effort before Oxford's Kitson grabbed the final try.

Four wins in a row for resurgent Chinnor

CHINNOR RFC made it four wins in a row after hammering Worthing RFC 38-8 on Saturday at Kingsey Road.

The opening score went to Worthing after Matt McLean grabbed a penalty goal in an intense start.

Shortly afterwards, a cross-field kick allowed Chinnor's Oscar Heath to catch and go over for the home side's first try of the day which was converted by Sam Angell.

The score rallied Worthing and after a penalty, Finlay Coxon-Smith was allowed to cross for an unconverted try.

The home side were back in front just minutes afterwards when Jonathan Phipps darted over the line, with his try then converted for a 14-8 score at half time.

Alex Waddingham crossed shortly after the restart as Chinnor surged forward with a rolling maul before Angell converted.

Debutant Jack Andrew then fought his way to the line to give Chinnor some breathing space and seal the bonus point for a 26-8 lead after another Angell conversion before Ben Manning grounded a fifth try for the home side.

Heath then intercepted a Worthing pass to make a 90-metre jog to the line to cross for a final converted try.

United denied win by a late equaliser

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD UNITED were denied all three points when Plymouth Argyle held them 2-2 in their second place meets third spot clash at Home Park on Saturday.

A Kemar Roofe goal and an own-goal from Peter Hartley looked to have secured the points for Michael Appleton's men before Craig Tanner heading in a late equaliser.

It added to Curtis Nelson's earlier goal to steal a share of the points for the Pilgrims.

United snatched the lead on twelve minutes after a Chris Maguire corner was deflected into his own net by Hartley.

However, just three minutes later, a corner into Oxford's box was nodded past United goalkeeper Sam Slocombe by Nelson, who was left in acres of space, to level the scores.

But Oxford did not let the setback affect them and a superb run down the left from Jordan Bowery led to the ball being cut in for Roofe to wriggle some space and power a weighted effort past Plymouth's keeper Luke McCormick on 35 minutes.

Bowery clipped a shot over the bar on 39 minutes and Jonjoe Kenny should have made it three seconds before the break, firing just wide with the goal gaping.

Liam Sercombe could have won a penalty in the first minute of the second half but the referee waved play on.

Danny Hylton was denied a goal into the final 20 minutes when his shot was blocked in the area and the forward then botched a chance shortly afterwards when a last-minute challenge denied him from firing home.

Plymouth then grabbed their second on 75 minutes when Tanner rose highest to beat Slocombe from another corner.

But there was still time for Hylton to hit the crossbar before the referee called time on 90 minutes, with both sides taking home a point from the much-hyped encounter.

Witney romp to big win over Trowbridge

WITNEY RFC smashed Trowbridge with a late surge in a 33-7 win on Saturday to cement their fourth spot in the South West 1 East table.

The Blues were up and running in the opening few minutes when fly-half George Lewis outpaced the Trowbridge backs to snatch an unconverted try.

Prop Jamie Burke nearly grabbed a second quick try for Witney when he picked up the ball on the 22 but he was caught from behind by a defender and the home side kicked the ball to touch.

On 34 minutes, Trowbridge snatched the lead when Witney were penalised for going over the ball and a penalty for the home side led to a line-out on Witney's 22 which gifted second row Mark Durant the chance to touch down for a converted try.

Witney were pushed back as the game headed into the second half and with 66 minutes on the clock a bursting run from Henry Lamb saw the ball slipped to Lewis who scored and then converted the try.

The final seven minutes saw Witney demolish the Trowbridge defence as winger Arrun Lambourne crossed down the wing before Lewis touched down under the posts for his third of the day, with both tries converted.

Rider Smith targets top eight in Moto GP

BRADLEY SMITH is targeting a top-eight finish in the 2016 Moto GP World Championship after he completed his final pre-season run last Friday.

The Monster Yamaha Tech3 team rider completed 62 laps on Friday whilst making alterations to his Yamaha YZR-M1 as he finished 13th in testing in Qatar.

Speaking after the testing, he said: "We are within touching distance of our target, which I think will be inside the top eight this year.

"I still believe that we have a bike that's only at 90 per cent so there's room to improve and we are always getting closer."

Smith enjoyed a wildly successful 2015 season, bagging a sixth-place finish in third MotoGP World Championship, finishing as the leading satellite rider.

The 25-year-old Oxfordshire rider added: "Going into the start of the season, I'm confident that we can do a good job.

"For me, I like to be put under pressure and I feel I perform better in that way, so roll on the start of the season in a few weeks' time.

"I'm excited to complete the testing and finally get into racing mode as the competition brings out a bit of extra pressure which some people like and some don't."

Odhiambo bags hat-trick as Kidlington hammer Milton

ANACLET ODHIAMBO bagged a hat-trick as Kidlington FC made it five league wins in a row after dispatching Oxfordshire rivals Milton United 9-2 at Yarnton Road on Tuesday.

Within three minutes, Martin Wilkinson's side were leading against United after Odhiambo slotted the ball into the net.

Ryan Brooks then extended the lead on 16 minutes before the away side clambered the ball into the net to pull one back to make it 2-1.

Kidlington soon responded when, with five minutes until half-time, Lewis Coyle fired in a wonder goal to take a two-goal lead into the break.

Eric Odhiambo then made it four for Kidlington, tapping in after a swift counter attack and his brother, Anaclet, then bagged his second on 55 minutes.

Milton allowed themselves some reprieve after a clever lob ended up in the Kidlington net on 64 minutes before Tommy Castle blasted home a seventh for the home side.

The Greens' lead was then extended on 74 minutes when Jack Quainton made it eight and a second from Lewis Coyle took the score to nine in a humiliating night for Milton and one that propels the Greens onwards as they bid for promotion.

Freds relegation fight continues

WANTAGE TOWN were swept aside by a rampant Cinderford Town at the Causeway on Tuesday night despite grabbing an early lead.

Stuart Cattell's men headed into the game knowing that any points picked up could guarantee their spot in the Southern League Division One South & West.

Cinderford, who are pushing for the title, were shocked into action and Sammie Hicks's long-range effort flew into the net on 35 minutes to level the tie before the break.

But, as often has happened this season, Wantage capitulated in the second half.

And a finely-taken goal from Keiran Thomas extended Cinderford's lead after 65 minutes.

Eight minutes later, the game was done and dusted as Kyle Knott powered an effort into the net.

The result leaves Wantage still seven points clear of the drop with eight games of the season left to play.

Keeble injured as Didcot snatch win

A HORROR injury to James Keeble left a sour taste in the Diddy's mouth despite Andy Ballard's side grabbing a 1-0 win at Bridgwater Town in Saturday's league clash.

A goal from Jack Self, who himself had just returned from injury, snatched the win for Didcot Town who should have scored more in the contest.

The victory made it three out of four away wins on the trot for Didcot, who stay tenth in the Southern League Division One South & West table heading into their final nine fixtures.

Keeble suffered the blow when making a superb tackle in the 17th minute in which the former Thame United midfielder broke his tibia, leading to him being stretchered off and most likely to be out for the rest of the season.

Didcot forward George Reid was handed a great opportunity shortly afterwards when one-on-one with the Bridgwater goalkeeper, however his touch was too heavy and the ball was collected by the keeper.

Self grabbed the only goal of the game on 30 minutes, when a Didcot corner fell to the midfielder on the edge of the box and he steered it through a sea of defenders to nestle in the net.

It took a while for the sides to carve out some opportunities as the game headed into the second half.

Ballard was given the chance to head home a second for the Diddy on 66 minutes after a cleared free-kick led to a corner, but the ball ricocheted off the crossbar and was knocked to safety by a defender.

Alex Woodhouse was then brought down just outside the penalty area but the subsequent free kick led to nothing and in the 80th minute the home side hit the crossbar in a fast-paced counter attack.

Didcot's top goalscorer Mark Janes missed an opportunity in the dying minutes when he hit the post and that proved to be the last real chance as the Railwaymen secured the win.
